land adjoining that of John. Henry Donnell had three sons,—John, Joshua, and Charles. The last two came into possession of land adjoining their brothers. The land owned by Joshua is now owned by Andrew H. Giffin. The land owned by Charles is now in possession of the heirs of John Curry. Joshua and Charles, after a few years, sold their farm and went West. John Donald married Rebecca Evans, of Ten-Mile, in Amwell township. They settled on the land he took up, and had seven daughters and one son. The daughters married and settled in Mercer County, Pa. He married as a second wife Janet Lyle, of Peters Creek, in Peters township, by whom he had four daughters and three sons. The only one living of these children is Charles, a son, who lives on the old homestead. Henry, another of the sons, married Anna, the daughter of David Hay, of Chartiers township. They settled on the homestead also, where he died Nov. 9, 1881, in his eightieth year, leaving a widow and three children, of whom John H. Donnell and a sister live at the homestead. Mrs. Henry Donnell also lives there still, having resided there over fifty years. Of the eight hundred acres purchased by John Donnell, the present owners are Andrew H. Giffin, W. W. Gladden, John Conner, David Beaboat, John M. Smith, and John H. Donnell.

James Bunyan was from New York City, and had formerly been a sea captain. In 1795 John Morgan, a son of Col. George Morgan, married his only daughter Margaret, and as the Morgans removed to Morganza Mr. Bunyan was induced to come also to this section. He purchased two hundred acres of land belonging to Samuel Long and James Philips in the township of Cecil, on Chartiers Creek, opposite Morganza. John Morgan settled here; their son, Thomas Gibbs Morgan, became a leading lawyer in the State of Louisiana, and judge of the courts of that State. Another son, James, is now living in Pittsburgh. A colored man, Elias Prall, who came out with the family as a slave, is now living at Canonsburg at the age of eighty-five years.

Matthew Ritchie patented several tracts of land in this township. A part of one that was patented March 17, 1788, was sold to John Harper, who, on the 4th of April, 1814, sold to Hance McClelland two hundred and fifty-nine acres. Three years later he died and left it to his sons, John and Ebenezer. The latter sold his portion, one hundred and thirteen acres, Aug. 31, 1838, to Alexander McCloy, and purchased a portion of the Morganza tract.

There were many families of the name of Fife, who settled early in what is now Allegheny County. John Fife came to this township, and on the 22d of February, 1799, purchased four hundred acres of land of Patrick Jordan, adjoining land of Reuben Waits. He had seven sons, William, Andrew, Robert, John, James, Thomas, and Nathaniel. The latter went West. William, Robert, Thomas, and James, all settled on the homestead. William and Thomas are still living there; the others are dead.

William Craighead, son of George Craighead of North Strabane township, came to Cecil in 1806, and on the 25th of April in that year purchased one hundred and eighty acres of Reed and Sally Bracken, heirs of Thomas Bracken, a part of the tract called "The Three Shares." His son George settled in Peters township. James and John, also sons, live on a farm adjoining Canonsburg. The homestead of William is now owned by William R. Craighead, son of George and grandson of William.

Robert Miller was a resident of the territory before it became Washington County. He took up under the offer of Virginia to settlers several tracts of land for which he received a Virginia certificate in 1780. One was surveyed Jan. 8, 1787, under the name of "The Cell," and contained three hundred and eighty-nine acres. It was at that time adjoining lands of Matthew Ritchie, William Hays, George Frazer, Robert Miller, Matthew Johnson. A warrant was granted to him by the Board of Property dated March 25, 1795, and returned April 1st, the same year. On the 27th of October, 1793, he sold ninety acres of this tract to Joseph McCombs. Another tract containing three hundred and eighty acres, called "The Valley," was surveyed Jan. 8, 1786. This tract was adjoining Joseph Brown, John May, and Matthew Ritchie. Patent for it was obtained in May, 1798. One hundred and one acres of it was sold May 16, 1794, to Nathaniel Caughey, and two hundred and one acres, April 13, 1795, to William Kerr. On the 28th of April, 1795, Robert Miller authorized Craig Ritchie to make a deed for John Hays and Nicholas Smith of a tract of land containing four hundred acres, adjoining land of William Kerr, John McCombs, Matthew Johnson, William Hays, and others, "in such sort that Joseph Hays is to have one hundred and one acres whereon he now lives, and Nicholas Smith the remainder where said Miller lived." Prior to the execution of the deed Miller moved to Kentucky. Joseph McCombs purchased ninety acres of land Oct. 27, 1793, of Robert Miller, and lived there till his death. He had seven or eight daughters who became widely scattered by their settlement in life. Joseph Thompson, a native of Ireland, emigrated to the eastern part of Pennsylvania, where he lived several years, and in 1802 came to this township and settled northeast of Canonsburg, where he had purchased forty acres of land. He had three children,—Joseph, William, and Elizabeth. Joseph married Hannah, daughter of Thomas Bracken, and settled on Pigeon Creek. William settled on the home farm, and lived there till his death. His son Joseph settled in Canonsburg over fifty years ago, and is still a resident. Elizabeth became the wife of a Mr. McMillan, and settled on Pigeon Creek near the Newkirks.

MILLER notes Sept. 1, 1975

From a paper in Inez Gilliland Foster's handwriting:

"John Gilliland moved from Carolina to Brown Co., Ohio. Married Mary Miller, daughter of Robt. Miller of Brown Co., Ohio where they continued to reside until his death on Dec. 19, 1843.

# # # # # # # # # # # #

From an unsigned and undated letter to Inez Gilliland Foster:

"John Gilliland, b. 1-1-1774, d. 11-19-1843, emigrated to Ohio, married 1-11-1807 to Mary Miller, b. 10-2-1788, d. 9-21-1872

ROBERT MILLER - from N. or S. Carolina. Took up land in Ohio where he was shot by an Indian for a team of horses the Indian had tried to buy.

KESIAH DUNLEVY (or DUNLAVY)

Mary (Polly) Gilliland
Naomi Martin
Betsy Horn
Robert, Jr.
Kesiah Wright
Martha Porter

This isn't very plain. Whether her maiden name was Dunlevy or she married again after Robert Miller was killed, but Mary or Polly's name was Miller if the rest were Dunlevy's. I'll see if Bernice knows when I see her."

From a note in Inez Gilliland Foster's handwriting:

"John Gilliland's grandfather settled in South Carolina in or near Abbeville and was of Scotch Irish descent. He married a Miss Baird. John Gilliland was wounded in the battle of King's Mountain. He married Major Miller's daughter. The Major fought with Morgan's Riflemen from Virginia. Himself and brother came from Ireland or Scotland and settled in Gettysburg, Penn. in the time of William Penn."

From a family record book written by Lyle Willis Gilliland about 1888:

"MARY GILLILAND, nee MILLER

"Born in Pennsylvania October 2, 1787. Daughter of Robert Miller (a farmer who moved from Pennsylvania to Sioto County, Ohio, where he was, soon after, murdered by a man named Owens while clearing lands. Simon Kenton was thought to be the instigator of the murder as he and Miller had had a contention over a piece of land.)

"Mary had three sisters and one brother. Sisters - Elizabeth, Kerzia and Martha. The brother - Robert.

"Her sister Elizabeth married James Horn, a farmer, had one child, lived in Adams County, Ohio.

"Kerzia married Geo. Wright, a farmer, had three children, lived in Brown Co., Ohio.

"Martha married Ralph Humphrey Willson, a farmer, lived in Adams Co., Ohio and had a large family.

"Her brother Robert married Elizabeth ~~Wistor~~ worstel, had six children, lived in Brown County, Ohio.

"Mary Miller was small in stature, had blue eyes and light brown hair. Married John Gilliland in Brown County, Ohio, in the year 1807, and lived with him until his death December 19, 1843. After the death of her husband she lived with her children, and when they moved from Ohio to Kansas, she went with them, and there spent the remainder of her days. She died in Lyon County, Kansas, September 22, 1872, aged 84 years, 11 months and 20 days. Mary Gilliland was the mother of Alexander B. Gilliland and the paternal grandmother of Lyle Willis Gilliland. She was buried in Emporia, Lyon Co., Kansas."

Excerpt from letter dated Jan. 4, 1957 from Belle Elizabeth David to Paul Grant:

"We have several things in common - my grandfather's brother wrote his history many years ago and it contains all the history you have sent me. Martha Miller went to live with her sister Elizabeth Horn after her father's death. Martha Miller is my line. Her father was listed as Capt. John Miller and I expect you will find him listed in the Penn. Archives. He probably fought with Capt. John Wilson. The father was born about 1760 and his second wife was Keziah Garold and also your line. He had a first wife by whom he had several children (Capt. John Miller). We have no record of this. After Capt. John Miller's death Keziah Garold married Anthony Dunlavy. He was of the people that framed the constitution of Ohio. I hope I have helped you. Etc., etc."

Copy of letter of Apr. 17, 1958, Belle Elizabeth David to Mrs. Cannon:

"In going thru my genealogy book I checked on the Miller family. Capt. John Miller came from some of the eastern states and settled in Virginia. It is unknown where he was born and the name of his first wife (and they had a family). We are concerned with his 2nd wife Kiziah Garrell, born 1764. They came from Mason Co., Ky. to locate some land by making improvements. There was 2 parties, one headed by Mr. Miller and the other by Mr. Kenton. In the Kenton party was a man by the name of Owens. An argument arose between Miller and Owens, and Miller was shot by Owens.

From Howe's History of Ohio, Vol. 2, page 421.

Miller and Kiziah had 5 children:

1. Elizabeth Miller, born 1787, married James Horn, one dau. Julia Horn who married Tobias Cannon. They had: Quincy, Curtis, Randolph, Wellington (died age 12), Cyrus, Monterey Buena Vista, Caroline, Elizabeth, ~~EMF~~ Euarka and Victoria. They all went to Grant Co., Indiana.

2. Mary Miller, born Oct. 2, 1788 in Va., was married to John Gilliland, they had 11 children.

3. Robert Garrell Miller, married Elizabeth ~~Wistor~~ worstel, had 6 children: Julia Ann, Robert Scot, John, Barton, Nancy and Mary Ann Miller.

4. Kiziah Miller, married Mr. George Wright and had these children: John, Robert S., Hanna, Kiziah and James.

5. Martha Miller, who married Ralph Humphries Wilson, had 9 children. (The husband of Mrs. Cannon, recipient of this letter, is descended from this couple).

(The last address I had for Belle Elizabeth David, about 1970, was Mrs. J. C. David, P. O. Box 1056, Stafford, Arizona, 85546).

The counties mentioned were located as follows:

# # # # # # # # # # # # #

This boils down to: The first known ancestor was Major Robert Miller who came from North or South Carolina and lived at some time in Mason Co., Ky., then in Brown Co., Ohio and died 12-19-1843 or Capt. John Miller who came from the eastern states and settled in Virginia, lived in Mason Co., Ky and Brown Co., Ohio.

His second wife (and he was her second husband) was ~~Kesiah (Kiziah) [illegible]~~ Kesiah Garrell. (Garold). He was born about 1760 and she in 1764. in Pa. They were probably married in Mason Co., Ky.

They had 5 children one of whom, Mary (Polly) was my wife's ancestor.

Things to be done:

Check DAR Ancestor's Index for Major Robert Miller of Morgan's Riflemen from Va. and Capt. John Miller who fought with Capt. John Wilson and may be in the Penn. Archives. Search for the name Garrell (Garold) in pre-revolutionary times.
Get full transcript of family information from Howe's History of Ohio, Vol 2, p. 421.
Watch genealogical exchange magazines for references to Horn, Wistor, Wright and Wilson, with whom the children married. Check the reference that the first Miller came from Scotland or Ireland and settled in Gettysburg, Pa. in the time of William Penn.

The following is a copy of a hand-written account left by Lyle Willis Gilliland. Lyle Willis Gilliland died 12-28-1889 at the age of 42 of tuberculosis of which there was much in the family. Apparently hebecame interested in learning all he could about his ancestors and spent the lst several years of his life obtaining and transcribing information on them. The information has proved to be remarkably accurate, but a few errors have been found by later research.

Stephen D. Willis was a large, fine looking man, weighing in prime of life 180 pounds and standing 6 ft. 1 inch in height; possessed a good mind and much more than ordinary natural ability; his education was very imperfect, as he never had the advantages of much schooling; had a very retentive memory as evidenced, in part, by the large fund of stories and anecdotes always at his command, belonged to the Presbyterian church before he came to Oregon, was a good man and died a christian, at the age of 78 years, 9 months and 21 days. S. D. Willis was father of Mary Truehart Gilliland and maternal grandfather of Lyle Willis Gilliland. He was buried on his Donation Land Claim in Douglas Co., Oregon.

NANCY ANN WILLIS, nee ROSS

Saturday, 20th May, 1882 at the residence of her daughter, Martha Ann Rice, on a farm near the South Umpqua River some 10 or 12 miles south of Roseburg in Douglas Co., Oregon, aged 78 years, 4 mos. and 27 days. We were advised of her death by a telegram from my father at Roseburg to my uncle, P. L. Willis, here. She was buried beside her husband on their Donation Land Claim in Douglas County, Oregon.

MARY GILLILAND, nee MILLER

Born in Pennsylvania October 2, 1787. Daughter of Robert Miller, a farmer, who moved from Pennsylvania to Sioto Co., Ohio where he was soon after murdered by a man named Owens while clearing lands. Simon Kenton was thought to be the instigator of the murder as he and Miller had had a contention over a piece of land.

Mary had three sisters and one brother. Sisters - Elizabeth, Kerzia and Martha. The brother - Robert. Her sister, Elizabeth, married James Horn, a farmer, had one child, lived in Adams Co., Ohio. Kerzia married Geo. Wright, a farmer, had three children, lived in Brown Co., Ohio. Martha married Ralph Willson, a farmer, lived in Adams Co., Ohio, had a large family. Her brother Robert married Elizabeth ~~Wistor~~ Worstell, had 6 children, lived in Brown Co., Ohio.

Mary Miller was small in stature, had blue eyes and light brown hair. She married John Gilliland in Brown Co., Ohio, in the year 1807 and lived with him until his death Dec. 19, 1843. After the death of her husband she lived with her children and when they moved from Ohio to Kansas, she went with them, and there spent the remainder of her days. She died in Lyon Co., Kansas, Sept. 22, 1872, aged 84 years, 11 months and 20 days. Mary Gilliland was the mother of Alexander B. Gilliland and paternal grandmother of Lyle Willis Gilliland. She was buried in Emporia, Lyon Co., Kansas.

ALEXANDER B.ington GILLILAND

He was born in Brown Co., Ohio, 4th February, 1815, a son of John Gilliland and Mary, his wife. He lived with his parents on their farm until the death of his father, 19th December, 1843. He was afflicted with rheumatism most of his youth and early manhood, so much so that he was confined to his bed a great part of each year from the time he was 15 until 28 years of age, interfering materially with his working on the farm or attending school at the proper age. When a young man he followed teaming a great deal not being able to follow any employment that required much walking or use of the feet as his toes were drawn up by rheumatism, in such shape that he never could walk without more or less pain. His frame was tall and slender, standing 5 ft. 11 in. in height and weighing 140 to 145 lbs. He had blue eyes, black hair and a fair complexion.

He moved to Putnam Co., Illinois early in the year 1846 and purchased a farm. He married Mary Truehart Willis 19th May, 1846 in said Putnam Co. He moved to Oregon, overland, with his family (then wife and three children) leaving home in Illinois 17th March, 1853, and reaching Fosters (the first house in Willamette valley, Ore.) 2nd Oct., 1853 - 6 months and 15 days in crossing. He purchased a farm on Deer Creek some 10 miles east of Roseburg in Douglas Co., Oregon where he settled 15th November, 1853, and there resided until 27 Sept., 1879 (nearly 26 years) when he rented his farm and moved into Roseburg, Ore.

On Monday morning, 15th April, 1883, he was taken with chills which developed into pneumonia and grew worse and worse until 7 minutes before 1 o'clock Tuesday morning, the 24th, when he died. The following extract from a letter of my sister Inez, written to me Monday the 23rd, is as follows: "Dear Brother: Father is worse today and is very sick indeed. The doctor says he will be better soon but we haven't much faith in what he says as he has not helped father any yet and he grows weaker rapidly. He is delirious today, but knows everyone. He tries to talk but we can understand but little he says."

The following is from the Roseburg Plain Dealer of April 28, 1883, a newspaper published in Roseburg, Douglas County, Oregon: "Died -- At his residence in this city, on Tuesday morning, April 24, 1883, Alexander B. Gilliland, aged 68 years, 2 months and 20 days. Deceased was born in Brown County, Ohio, in 1815, where he lived until the year 1846, when he moved to Ill. From thence he crossed the plains to Oregon in 1853, and settled on his farm on Deer Creek, where he lived with his family until about four years ago when they moved to Roseburg. He was married to Miss Mary Willis in 1846, which union remained harmonious until severed by the cruel hand of death. Eight children were born to them, of whom five only remain to mingle their tears with the stricken wife and mother. Deceased was a devout and faithful Christian until the time of his death. By the demise of this man, this community has lost a valuable member and the family an affectionate and kind husband and father. Deepest sympathy of the entire community is with the bereaved family."

The funeral services were from the Presbyterian church at 1 o'clock P. M. April 25, and he was buried on the north half lot N. 3, block no. 4, in the cemetary grounds of Laurel Lodge N. 13, A. F. & A. M. which is about one mile northwest of Roseburg in Douglas Co., Ore. I was advised of his death by a telegram from my sister Hattie, received here in Portland about 5 o'clock the same morning and went to Roseburg the same day.

My father was an industrious hard working man, a farmer and a mechanic. He lacked the education necessary for a first class business man and his tastes led him to think of other things; he had no desire for a great deal of wealth and therefor never accumulated a great deal. When he died, he was possessed of his farm on Deer Creek in Douglas County, Oregon consisting of something over 700 acres of land, nearly all under fence, with a good orchard, house and barn. The orchard was planted and the improvements made with his own hands. He also owned a residence and 2 lots of land in the city of Roseburg. All this property was not worth more than $7,000 to $8,000. He was free from debt. In politics he was what is termed a republican party. He belonged to what was known as the anti-slavery party, never was an office seeker and never held a political office. He always took a lively interest in politics and public men and was free to express his opinions at any time without a thought as to whether they would please or displease.

He was never a member of any secret society. On the contrary, he was bitterly opposed to them all. He was strictly temperate in all his habits, was a professor of christianity since early manhood and practiced what he professed. His advice and his example were always good. I never knew him to eat a meal at home without first returning thanks to God. He was a kind indulgent father and lived happily with my mother until his death.

Portland, Oregon, 29th April, 1883

MARY TRUEHART GILLILAND, nee WILLIS

She was born in Sangamon County, Illinois, 29th October 1827, the daughter of Stephen D. Willis and Nancy Ann, his wife. She was married to Alexander B. Gilliland 19th May 1846 in Putnam County, Illinois. She crossed the plains with her husband and three children in 1853, leaving Illinois 17th March 1853 and reaching the Willamett valley Oregon 2nd October of the same year. She moved to Douglas County, Oregon 15th November 1853 and resided there continually, some ten miles east of Roseburg, until 27th September 1879 (nearly 26 years) when with her husband she moved into Roseburg, Oregon.

She had been afflicted with phthisic most of her life; up to her fourteenth year she had it by spells, then the disease left her and did not return until her twenty-second year, since which time she had it almost continually with but two or three short intervals, viz: the six months while crossing the plains and again during the winter of 1878 while visiting her brother, P. L. Willis, who lived in Klickitat County, Washington Territory.

October 2, 1883 she started east with the "Oregon Pioneer Excursion". She returned to Portland Sunday morning, November 11, 1883. She was troubled with phthisic most of the time during her absence. She went and returned over the Northern Pacific R. R. She died at Roseburg, Oregon, November 24th, 1895 of pneumonia. She was buried Nov. 26 at the Masonic Cemetary, Roseburg.

LYLE WILLIS GILLILAND

He was born in Putnam Co., Illinois 13th March, 1847, a son of Alexander B. Gilliland and Mary Truehart, his wife. Came accross the plains to Oregon with my parents in 1853 — age the day of starting from home in Illinois, 5 years and 4 days. I lived with my parents on their farm on Deer Creek, Douglas Co., Oregon until 18 years of age, working during the summer months and going to school in the winter. In the fall of 1865, I attended school at the Roseburg Academy.

In the spring of 1866 I was employed by Floed & Co. as clerk in their store in Roseburg, Oregon at a salary of $16.66 per month with board and lodging. Late in the fall of 1866 I resigned this position with Floed & Co. and drove a team to Portland, Oregon (saw Portland for the first time) and back to Roseburg for Joseph McLaughlin. December 1866 I went to Portland and entered school at the National Business College, where I graduated some time after my election as librarian. 20th February, 1867 I was elected librarian of the Portland Association which office I filled until June 1870/ 1st June 1870 I was employed as a bookkeeper in the First National Bank of Portland.

22nd December 1873 I was married to Martha Elizabeth Groomes at the Methodist Church in this city by the Rev. Wm. Roberts. 12th September 1876 I left Portland for Roseburg, Douglas Co. with my family (wife and two children, Chas. and May) on a visit to father and mother. 19th September 1876 I was with Robert when he accidentally shot himself. 20th Sept., 1876 I telegraphed to Cyrus who was in Portland "Robert is dead, accidentally shot himself. Can you come tomorrow" and he came. 4th September, 1877 I started for San Francisco, Cal. to spend a few weeks leave of absence - my first visit to San Francisco. October 1878 my son Charlie and I went out to Deer Creek on a visit to father and mother. 19th October, mother came home with us and 31st went up the Columbia River to her brother Parrish's and remained all winter.

Saturday 31st October 1880 started for Blackfoot, Idaho, after Cyrus' body, via the Columbia River, San francisco and Ogden. The following notice is copied from the Roseburg "Plaindealer" of Oct. 16, 1885: "At the Presbyterian Church last Wednesday evening Eugene R. Hanan and Miss Hattie Gilliland were initiated into the married life in the presence of a large number of friends. At 7:30 o'clock precisely, the happy couple passed up the right hand aisle of the church to the pulpit where Rev. John Howard tied the nuptial knot in a very few minutes - much too quickly to suit the spectators, but perhaps long enough to suit the contracting parties, and the happy couple then passed out by the left hand aisle and proceeded to their new residence on the corner of Mosher and Pine streets, where they received the congratulations of their many friends. After an hour or so of mutual greetings and social intercourse, refreshments were served and shortly afterwards the guests took their departure one and all wishing the newly married couple a prosperous and happy life thus auspiciously begun."

CYRUS BYINGTON GILLILAND

Cyrus Byington Gilliland was the son of Alexander B. Gilliland and Mary Truehart Gilliland, his wife. He was born November 26, 1855 at the house of Mac Adams on Deer Creek, Douglas Co., Ore., some four miles west of his father's farm; this was during the Indian War of 1855 and his parents had temporarily left their home for a place of greater safety. He lived on the farm with his parents until his sixteenth year. In June of 1871 he went with his uncle, Owen L. Willis to Stein's Mountain with a band of cattle. The winters of 1870 and 1871 were spent in Roseburg at school - he boarded at Mr. Bushey's. October, 1872 he was employed by Mr. H. E. Stanton to clerk in his store and post office. He continued in his employ most of the time (the remainder of the time was spent in school in Roseburg) until January 28, 1874, when he came to Portland. Feb. 1, 1874 he was employed by Messrs. T. A. Davis & Co., wholesale druggist. He remained in their employ 4 years, lacking one month, resigning his position as clerk on account of poor health Jan. 1, 1878. Sept. 7, 1875 he went out to Deer Creek on a visit and remained until 28th Sept., 1875. Thursday, 21st Sept. 1876 he went out to Deer Creek to attend Robert's funeral the 22nd.

He was frequently troubled with phthysic and Feb. 22, 1878 went east of the Cascade Mountains on that account and was immediately employed (23rd Feb. 1878) by his uncle, P. L. Willis, who lived in Klickitat County, Washington Territory, and had a large band of cattle. He remained in the employ of his uncle until his death 28th Oct., 1880. Dec. 17, 1879, he came down from east of the mountains on a visit to Portland. Christmas, 1879 he took dinner with us. December 29, 1879 he visited his parents for the last time at Roseburg. January 17, 1880, he left Roseburg for Portland. I saw him for the last time alive about 9 o'clock Wednesday evening, January 21, 1880, shook him by the hand and asked him to take care of himself. He promised he would then, without knowing it, left us forever and went up the columbia to his uncle's.

About the 1st of June, 1880, his uncle and W. W. Walker started with their cattle for some eastern market and he went with them. They drove the cattle out near Eagle Rock, Oneida County, Idaho Territory and turned them out on the range to winter. Their camp was about 11 miles northeast of Eagle Rock. Thursday, 28th Oct., 1880, Cyrus was killed by mormons at Eagle Rock, Oneida Co., Idaho Rerritory, aged 24 years, 11 months and 2 days. As he was entirely unacquainted in Eagle Rock and had but one friend with him at the time, who was also killed, no friend or anyone in whom confidence could be placed was present to relate to his relatives and friends the circumstances and facts concerning his death. They are, in all probability, as well and truthfully told by his uncle, P. L. Willis in a letter written a few days after the murder (while I was in Blackfoot) to his brother and sister, Cyrus' father and mother, as follows:-

"Blackfoot, Idaho, Nov. 6, 1880

"Dear brother and sister,

"The sad, sad news of Cyrus' death has reached you many days since and I write you now in hopes that I may say a word of consolation to you in your affliction. I was in Iowa when I heard of the death and reached here only yesterday and, from the best information I can get on the subject, conclude the facts were about as follows:-

"On the 28th of last month Cy and Wm. Mohun (another of our cattle men) went to Eagle Rock, a R. R. station 26 miles north of here and 11 miles southwest of our camp. Mohun got to drinking and while under the influence of liquor, flourished and fired his pistol around in a reckless and dangerous manner and Cy undertook to get him sobered off and away to camp and for such purpose got Mohun to lie down on a pile of hay near the station and lay down near him. Some of the Eagle Rock hoodlums, as reckless when sober as Mohun when drunk, in a cowardly and murderous manner, shot and killed them without allowing them any opportunity to defend themselves. Probably Mohun was killed because they were afraid of him and Cy from fear of his evidence against the murderers.

"Cy was unarmed, having left his pistol in camp that morning and I do not believe he spoke a threatening or abusive word to any of them or made a threatening movement on that day. His mistake, if any, was in refusing to leave Mohun while drinking alone in such a crowd, from all of which I conclude that in attempting to keep a friend out of trouble and perhaps save a life he lost his own.

"The reasons that lead me to these conclusions of fact are too long to commit to writing but Lyle, who you will probably see soon, will be able to furnish you some of them.

"Cy was intending to return with me to the ranch in Klickitat and continue work with the cattle this winter. He always proved himself to be an honest, straightforward and faithful man.

"Expressing the deepest sorrow and sympathy with you in your affliction, I remain,

Your brother,

P. L. Willis"

As I said before, Cyrus and Mohun were unacquainted with anyone at Eagle Rock, and the first of their friends to hear of the murder was Mr. W. M. Walker, who was in Blackfoot, 26 miles away. He started for Eagle Rock as soon as informed of the tragedy and on his arrival took charge of their bodies. Cyrus had been killed with a shot-gun. The charge had struck him in the top of the head, passed through the brain and lodged in the right eye. The next day he had them taken to Blackfoot, washed them, dressed them in new and clean clothes, placed them in coffins, and then, Friday the 29th day of October 1880, had them buried.

Saturday 30th October, 1880, I first received the news of Cyrus' death as follows: "Council Bluffs, Iowa, 29th October, 1880. Just received telegram from camp saying -- Cab and Cy killed -- shot, no particulars will advise you soon as I learn. P. L. Willis." On receipt of the above dispatch at Portland I telegraphed to Lem Walker at Blackfoot, Idaho as follows: "Portland, Oregon, 30th October 1880. Prepare Cyrus' body for shipment. Will be in Blackfoot Friday. Lyle Gilliland."

On receipt of my dispatch Mr. Walker telegraphed to Salt Lake City, Utah for a metalic casket and on Thursday, 4th November 1880, had Cyrus' body taken from the grave and placed in the casket for shipment. I reached Blackfoot Saturday morning 6th November by the Utah and Northern R. R. and when I stepped from the car I was met by my uncle, P. L. Willis, who had arrived from Council Bluffs, Iowa the day before, and Mr. Walker. I cannot describe my feelings at this time; I was unable to say a single word. After a little time I went with my uncle to see my brother. He was in his casket; his features had changed but little. He seemed asleep. I remained in Blackfoot until 6 P. M. when I started home with the corpse. Sunday 7th November I reached Ogden, Utah. Tuesday 9th November I arrived in San Francisco, Cal. where I had to wait until Friday 12th November for a steamer for Portland, Ore. Monday morning (a few minutes after 12 o'clock midnight) 15th November. I reached home with the corpse. I found father and mother in Portland waiting my return.

Cyrus was buried across the river in Lone Fir Cemetary (on the south west corner of Mr. Henry Failing's lot). Tuesday 16th November 1880 after a funeral service from our house, at 11 o'clock, Rev. Dr. A. L. Lindsley officiated, both at the house and at the grave. At the house he read from the 8th chapter of Romans and 13th Psalms. Mrs. Amory Holbrook had charge of the singing; first hymn sung was "Jesus Lover of my Soul." The pall-bearers were -- Messrs. F. A. Davis, Philip W. Schuyler, W. W. Wallace, Ret Byars, Harry Lohe, Gus Linded, John Vestal and Geo. E. Withington. When the casket was lowered into the grave, Dr. Lindsley took a shovel and threw in some dirt saying -- "Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was; and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it. I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this? Yes Lord; I believe that thou art the Christ, the son of God, which shall come into the world. Amen." Eccs. 12, 7 and St. John 11, 25/27.

When Cyrus lived in Portland he weighed 145 to 150 pounds, was 6 feet in height, had rather light brown hair, blue eyes and very fair complexion.

ROBERT OWEN GILLILAND

Robert Owen Gilliland was the son of Alexander B. Gilliland and Mary Truehart Gilliland, his wife. He was born on his father's farm on Deer Creek, Douglas Co., Oregon, 25th April, 1859. He lived on the farm with his parents until his 15th year, then in December 1874, came to Portland to attend school. On June 7, 1875, he returned to his father's in Douglas Co. to help on the farm during the summer. Nov 6, 1875, he came to Portland a second time to attend school. When in Portland he lived with me, studied hard and behaved well. In the spring of 1876 he returned again to Douglas Co. to help his father on the farm during the summer. He enjoyed the most vigorous health all his life.

He died by the accidental discharge of his rifle the 19th day of September, 1876, aged 17 years 4 months and 24 days. While here at school he weighed 158 pounds, was 5 feet 11 inches in height, had dark brown hair, blue eyes and dark complesion.

Robert and I were out in the mountains hunting when he was killed. I had gone out to my father's on Deer Creek on a visit with my family and Monday morning the 18th September 1876 Robert and I mounted our horses and started from the farm into the mountains for a few days hunt. We went in a southeasterly direction up the mountains past the house and farm of Mr. Whitsite and on around the head of the Ledgerwood Creek to the crest of the mountain that divides the waters of Deer Creek from those of Myrtle Creek, thence nearly west along the crest of the mountain for near half a mile, thence down a ridge of the mountain that took us in a southerly direction for 2 or 3 miles, until near Myrtle Creek where we camped the first day not having killed anything.

Next morning we were up at daylight, hunted until near noon seeing but one deer and not killing anything when we thought it best to seek a new range. We moved camp up the southern slope of the mountain down which we had come the day before until we came to a spring near the summit, where we again camped and ate lunch. Leaving our horses at the spring, we started off for an evening hunt in an easterly direction, following along the side of the mountain for a mile of more until near where one branch of Myrtle Creek heads we saw some wild cattle running down the canyon. Wishing to kill a calf, we followed them down the creek two miles or more before getting a shot. At last he killed a calf. We cut a piece out and started for camp up the steep mountain side in a northwesterly direction. We went up the mountain some two or three hundred yards, Robert carrying the meat and I the guns, when we stopped to rest. It was just sunset.

We were standing side by side facing the east, I to his right and a little below, when Robert who was standing on the upper side of a log reached for his rifle, which was standing below and leaning against the log, taking the barrel in his hand and pulling it toward him, the hammer caught on the log, slipped off and discharged the gun. The ball struck him just over the right eye and passed up through the brain tearing away a portion of the skull. He fell backward without saying a word, then rolled forward (the hillside being so very steep) and I caught him in my arms and placed my right hand over the wound to stop the flow of blood then just starting down his cheek. After a few minutes I laid him down on the upper side of the log and made for him a pillow of small twigs and thimble-berry leaves, the last and only service I could do him in that lonely, lonely spot.

The night soon grew very dark and rain began to fall. I spread my coat over him and built up a fire near by to warm myself and give me light - Robert needed none. He breathed for nearly three hours after he was shot and for at least one hour was able to raise himself on his elbow when choked by the flow of blood. He never spoke a word after he was shot, but groaned considerable as if sensible of pain. He died about half past 9 o'clock, as near as I could guess, Tuesday night, the 19th September 1876.

Owing to the darkness of the night as well as the rough and brushy character of the country lying between us and our camp or any trail, I was compelled to wait until the light of the next morning enabled me to see before starting for help or home. Then tying his dog to a tree near Robert's lifeless body, I went home and told the sad story to our parents. The news was soon carried to neighbors and by noon some twenty of Robert's young friends were in the mountains after his body. They were compelled to carry the corpse on a ~~XXXXXX~~ litter for nearly four miles, through a severe rain and snow storm, along a very rough and crooked trail where darkness overtook them before coming to the wagon road. It was eleven o'clock at night when they reached home with his body.

The coffin was brought up from Roseburg the 21st and he was buried the 22nd Sept. 1876, at 11 o'clock A. M. on the farm on Deer Creek in Douglas County beside his brother Cassius. The Rev. Mr. Howard preached the funeral at the house. The pall-bearers were John and Arthur Howe, Walter Meleland, Joseph Lenheir, John Cox and Lafayette Lane, Jr. At the grave, General Joseph Lane spoke at considerable length of the worthy traits and manly virtue of Robert, whom he had known from infancy. Rev. Mr. Howard offered a prayer and the body was laid in the grave.

Note by Paul A. Grant, P. O. Box 55, Lebanon, Oregon, 97355. This is a copy of the complete record of Lyle Willis Gilliland with the exception of the accounts bearing on his own children - Charles Leslie Gilliland, b. 20th Oct., 1874, Agnes Mary Gilliland, b. 22nd May, 1876, Maude Gilliland, b. 16th May, 1878 and Robert Willis Gilliland, b. 6th June, 1881. Accounts of these children were quite lengthy with details on such things as cutting teeth and they are relatively modern, so they were omited for the sake of brevity. Much related material can be found in the book "Wilson-Baird History by Frank C. Shepherd, and Paul A. Grant has considerable additional information accumulated over 35 years of research.

Family of Lucy M. Moyer

[Grandmother of Eloise Wilson]

Pennsylvania Dutch Origins

Lucy's grandparents, Henry [born June 27, 1767] and Salome Moyer, brought the Moyer family to Brown County from Chester County, Pennsylvania, which is about forty miles west of Philadelphia. I know from living in Pennsylvania that Moyer is the name of a large Pennsylvania German family; many Moyers are Mennonite, but others may have been Amish or even Lutheran. J.H. Peterson, a descendent, has tried to find the family's roots in Chester County. She believes the family were Lutheran. She has also discovered there are variations in the spelling of the name in the old records: Moyer, Maier, Meyer, etc. Her other findings:

> In the History of Chester County on p. 600 is a woman named Ann Hickman [b. 1770] who married a Henry Myers.
> A 1790 Chester Co. Index shows John Earhart [1-6-3] in Oxford Township, George Earhart in New London Twp. [1-4-4], and Jacob Moyer in Pikeland [1-3-4].
> The 1800 census of Upper Oxford Township shows a George Moyar with family. In the same township is a John Earhart.
> The 1810 census of Upper Oxford Township shows Henry Myars with a large family.

The name John Earhart above is important because there seems to be a close association between the Moyer and Earhart families. Both families appear to have settled about the same time at Locust Ridge in Pike Township [HBC p 217, p 219]. J.H. Peterson believes Salome's maiden name was Earhart.

The John Earhart who settled in Brown County seems to be Henry and Salome's generation; therefore, he may have been Salome's brother and Henry's brother-in-law. John Earhart was witness to Henry Moyer's Last Will written in 1829. If related, these two families may very likely have travelled west together.

The Trip West

The History of Brown County on page 217 indicates that the family of John and Martha Earhart, natives of Pennsylvania who married there about 1800, settled ultimately in Pike Township; they left Pennsylvania about 1813 and passed through Virginia before arriving in Clermont County in 1814. Brown County had not yet been organized when they arrived. In 1818 Locust Ridge where the Earhart and Moyer families settled was included in the new county.

While we don't know for sure if the Moyers travelled with the Earharts, we do know Henry Moyer's father came west. His name was already forgotten in 1883 when the History of Brown County was written. On page 556 it says, "Henry's father came with him to Ohio; died in early days, and of his history not much can be gathered except he was a native of Germany." In addition to Henry's father, Henry and Salome travelled with small children, including Lucy's father, John.

Henry died in 1829 and, Salome, died the next year. They were buried in the family cemetery on their farm. The Moyer and Earhart farms around Locust Ridge may be seen on the map of Pike Township on page 59 in the 1876 Atlas of Brown County.

Children named in Last Will of Henry Moyer: Margaret, John, Mary Thompson, George, Henry Jr., Julianna, Isaiah M., and Samuel Harrison Moyer. John named above was Lucy's father, and the others were her aunts and uncles. Her uncle, George F. Moyer (b. 1810), has a brief biography on page 556 in the History of Brown County. His wife's name was Jemima [1860 census]. They were farmers.

Lucy's Parents: John and Mary Moyer of Locust Ridge, Pike Township*

Lucy's father, John Moyer, was born in Chester County, Pennsylvania on June 24, 1805; he was ten or eleven when his father, Henry Moyer, moved the family to Brown County. He married Lucy's mother, Mary Smith on May 6, 1830 [Clermont County, Ohio, Book 2 p. 338]. John served several terms as a Pike Township trustee between the years of 1856 and 1862. Lucy's mother died in December 3, 1863, when Lucy was 26. Her father died in March 1880.

Lucy M.	Our subject, born June 20, 1837 - died April 18, 1932
Louisa J.
W.C.	1860 census shows a son named Wilber B. @ 1845

[an unnamed seventh child was deceased at the time HBC was written]

In the 1900 census, she is living alone in Clark Township. The record says she was the mother of seven children, five of whom are living in 1900. She was born in Ohio, her father in Pennsylvania, and her mother in Ohio. Her son, Curtis, is living with his new bride, Margaret [Ludy], in Georgetown.

Death Notice in the Georgetown News Democrat, Thursday, April 28, 1932, page 3:

> Funeral Services for Mrs. Lucy Wilson aged 94 years, who passed away Monday, April 18, at her home in Madisonville, were held at the Kennedy Funeral Home in Bethel Wednesday afternoon and internment made at Confidence Cemetery. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Mary Brachman of Madisonville, Mrs. Loretta Walker of San Antonio, Texas, and one son, Mr. Curtis H. Wilson of Columbus, Ohio.
> [She must have been living with her daughter in Madisonville which is near Cincinnati; Bethel is near Hamersville, but it is in Clermont County.

Her Last Will written in 1930 was brief. She left her home in Hamersville to her daughter, "Mrs. Mollie BRACHMAN, of Madisonville, Hamilton County, Ohio." She divided her personal property between her son "Curtis H. Wilson of Columbus, Ohio, and my daughter, Mrs. Loretta WALKER of San Antonio, Texas."

Question/Observation: Mollie seems to be Mary Jane Walker in the 1880 census. Did Loretta, who was a Wilson in the 1880 census marry a half-brother; it's interesting that her married name seems to be WALKER, the name of Lucy's first family.

Lucy Moyer Wilson was buried in the Wilson plot in Confidence Cemetery in Georgetown. Her son, Scott had been the first family burial here. Lucy probably bought the plot at the time of his death in 1892. Presumably her husband, Robert Wilson, was buried, on his farm in a family cemetery. Why Scott wasn't buried there, I don't know.

In 1964 burials in this plot were recorded in a volume of Brown County Tombstone Inscriptions. They are below in the order in which they occurred:

Scott Wilson 1873-1892
Matilda M. Ellis, wife of David, 9/7/1842 - 11/27/1929
Lora D. Wilson 1870 - 1931
Lucy M. Wilson 1837 - 1932
Curtis Harrison Wilson 5/9/75 - 8/13/1963

I don't know who Matilda Ellis is, nor do I have Lora D. Wilson figured. Curtis, of course is Lucy's son, and after 1964, I think all three of his children were buried here. I do know that Eloise Wilson was buried here in 1970. Curtis' wife, Margaret, was buried nearby, but in the Ludy plot next to her father, Adam Ludy.

Lucy M. Moyer

[Grandmother of Eloise Wilson]

Lucy Moyer was married twice. Her second husband was Robert M. Wilson of Hamersville, Ohio. She was 42 years old when Robert died in 1879 leaving her with three small children to raise. One of those three was Eloise Wilson's father, Harrison Curtis Wilson. Harrison was a name which comes from Lucy's family; it was her uncle's name. Eloise's father must not have liked the name because he was always known as Curtis Wilson.

After the death of Robert, Lucy remained a widow the remainder of her long life. She died in 1932 when she was nearly 95 years old. Eloise was 30 years old when her grandmother died.

Lucy's Two Marriages

In the 1870 census records for Pike Township, Lucy was living with her father with three children from her first marriage who had been born in Missouri. Her last name was Walker. She was 32; Lucy and her children were the only ones living with her father who had been widowed in 1863. I am supposing she got married, went off to Missouri where she had a family, and when her husband died, she returned to her father's. Her children and their ages in 1870:

Julius	12	works on farm
George	9	attends school
Mollie	7	attends school (Mary Jane in 1880 census)

In the intervening ten years, she met and married a widower, Robert M. Wilson. Hamersville where Robert lived is just a couple miles from the Moyer farms at Locust Ridge. In the next census (1880), she is the 43-year-old widow of Robert M. Wilson. Living with her on his farm in Clark Township are:

Scott M. Wilson	6	attended school in the last year
Harrison C. Wilson	5	attended school in the last year
Lauretta B. Wilson	3
Mary Jane Walker	18	attended school in the last year

In his Last Will, Robert Wilson stipulated that Lucy was to have his farm, "as long as she remained his widow." She never remarried, and lived over fifty years after his death. Her father died just three months after her husband died.

Tragedy Strikes: Death of Her Son

In 1892, tragedy struck when her eighteen-year-old son, Scott, was killed the day after Christmas [coincidentally the same day his father died in 1879]. I do not have any documentation, but tradition which was passed down through Eloise maintains that he worked for the railroad, and his death was work-related, maybe a train wreck? His younger brother also worked on the railroad.

OBITUARY

JANE BELL TWEED

Once again the golden chain is broken, and this time the Death Angel claimed Jane Bell Tweed, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Miller (Mary J. Evans), who was born near Ripley, Ohio December 10, 1854, and passed away at Claud-Texas, February 21, 1934.

In December 1876 she was married to Charles Tweed of Ripley, Ohio. Three children came to bless the home. Katheryn, wife of Summer Prentice, of Dayton, O.; Villie, of Georgetown; and Etta, wife of Dick Phillips, of Claud, Texas, at whose home she died, and who so tenderly cared for her.

When a young girl she united with the Georgetown, Ohio Christian Church.

Mrs. Tweed was of such a sweet and kindly nature that she became endeared to all whom her life touched. She had an unswerving faith in Christ, and a deep interest in the success and progress of His Kingdom. For the past year she has been in failing health, and her activities among her friends and church have necessarily been curtailed, but her interest was never lessened.

There remains to mourn her departure besides her children, three grandchildren, and two great grand children, one dear sister, Mrs. W. C. Cox, and a host of relatives and friends to cherish her memory and to look forward to that future and happy meeting at the Father's right hand.

The funeral services was conducted at the Georgetown Christian Church by Rev. Dodson.

Oh, mother dear from us is gone
Her voice is ever stilled,
There's a vacant place in our home
Which never can be filled.
God in His Wisdom has recalled
The one His love has given
And though her body slumbers here
Her soul is safe in Heaven.

The funeral was conducted at Georgetown Christian church by Rev. Dodson.

OBITUARY

JANE BELL TWEED

[illegible] the [illegible] Death Angel [illegible] Jane Bell Tweed, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Butler (Mary J. Kraner), who was born near Kelley, Ohio December [illegible], [illegible] Texas, February [illegible].

In November 1876 she was married to Charles Tweed of [illegible] [illegible] Mrs. [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] of Carol, Texas, [illegible] and who so tenderly cared for her.

When a young girl she united with the Georgetown, Ohio Christian Church.

Mrs. Tweed was always a sweet and kindly person [illegible] Christ, and a deep interest in the [illegible] of the [illegible]. For [illegible] years she has been in failing health and her activities among her friends and church have necessarily been curtailed, but her interest was never lessened.

She leaves to mourn her departure [illegible] grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and two great-great grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. W. C. Cox, and a host of relatives and friends to cherish her memory and to look forward to that happy reunion at the Father's right hand.

The funeral service was conducted at the Georgetown Christian Church by Rev. Denton.

Our mother dear from us is gone
The voice we loved is stilled;
There's a vacant place in our home
Which never can be filled.
God in His Wisdom has recalled
The one His love has given
And though her body slumbers here
Her soul is safe in Heaven.

The funeral was conducted at Georgetown Christian church by Rev. Denton.

Elizabeth Tweed's ancestors came from the English side of the River Tweed thence to the borderline between MD & PA locating on a stream called Woolen Breeches, owned a mill of that name, about 40 miles by wagon rd from Baltimore, MD. There were two houses in each state because of ld size, Most believe Tweeds were Scotch.

MASON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, COURT AND OTHER RECORDS

Contributed by
Mrs. Lula Reed Boss
Maysville, Kentucky

GEORGE MEFFORD * PATRIOT   Washington County, Pennsylvania to Mason Co., Ky.

OLD FORT BEING RESTORED

The Deposition (in part) of John Riggs taken in Mason County July 3, 1797. (Will Book A - page 323) states: "Came down the Ohio River to the District of Kentucky, in company with John Drinen, Thomas Mills, Lot Masters and George Mefford, in May, 1783." "We made locations on the east fork of Cabin Creek; at one place cutting the initials of George Mefford's name on a honey locust."

The "Frontier Service" of George Mefford has been accepted by the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution - National Nos. 431610 and 431611.

"The first settler with his family near Maysville and out side of a blockhouse was George Mefford, who lived in a cabin where his son, John Mefford lived until his death on April 7, 1872, two miles due south of Maysville. The "Boathouse" as it is called was constructed from the timbers of the old broadhorn George Mefford steered down the Ohio River. The spot was known in 1787 as "Mefford's Station." George Mefford was one of the first trustees of Maysville in 1787, and his son John was the third child born in Mason County, born December 4, 1787." (From: "History of Maysville and Mason County," by G. Glenn Clift, page 55)

MEFFORD'S FORT - Historic landmark, on the Maple Leaf Road a half mile from its junction with historic U. S. 68, it is the only original fort of the Revolutionary War left standing in Kentucky, and it is the last of the flatboat houses. Early settlers so constructed their flatboats that after they floated down the Ohio to Limestone (now Maysville) they could take them apart and use the materials to build better houses on the forest-clad hillsides of Kentucky. This old fort is being restored under the sponsorship of the Mason County Historical Society and will be one of the states greatest tourist attractions and the children of this and coming generations can behold the wide cherry flatboat boards that form the walls.

The following records of the Mefford family are in the possession of Mrs. Walter Reed Richardson, R. R. # 1, Maysville, Kentucky, who is a descendant of John Mefford, "third child born in Mason County."

"This record begins with Andrew Conrad Mefford an Englishman. He and his wife came from Frankfurt, Germany (the wife was German). We find no records of the date of his coming but dates of other events enable us to judge that it was in/or about the year 1757. The Meffords first landed in Maryland. The next record we find of him is that he was a Captain in the Revolutionary War. After the war, he lived in/or near Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

"Andrew Mefford and wife were the parents of two sons and two daughters (these were all that came to Kentucky about 1785 or 1786). George Mefford, their son, was born at sea about 1757 and died October 18, 1814, in Mason County, Kentucky. John Mefford, brother of George, was born April 19, 1764 and died April 21, 1834.

"George Mefford was a gun maker by trade and we suppose made guns for the American Army during the Revolutionary War. On July 27, 1779, he married Malinda Masters, (English), who was born January 18, 1763.

They were the parents of thirteen children:

Andrew Mefford born January 8, 1781
Ann Mefford born February 6, 1783
Samuel Mefford born May 21, 1785
John Mefford born December 4, 1787
Nathan Mefford born February 17, 1790
Mary Mefford born June 5, 1792 – 10 yr old in 1802
Elizabeth Mefford born March 15, 1795
George Mefford, Jr., born April 23, 1797
Sarah Mefford born January 27, 1799
Lydia Mefford born November 14, 1800
Thomas Mefford born February 25, 1803
Joshua Mefford born March 10, 1805
Caleb Mefford born February 16, 1808

George Mefford (Sr) died October 18, 1814. Melinda (Masters) Mefford, his widow, married secondly Ennis Duncan on September 25, 1816. She was deceased by September, 1848.

"The foregoing records have been gathered from various sources. Partly from the Bible said to have belonged to the first George Mefford. At the time this record was put together the Bible was in possession of Mary Mefford Purdum living near Georgetown, Ohio. She was a granddaughter of George Mefford. Several of the children of George Mefford went to Brown County, Ohio, to live.

"John Mefford, son of Andrew Conrad Mefford, went to Brown County, Ohio, where many of his descendants still live. One sister married a Mr. Riggs or Briggs and went to Ohio. The other sister married a Mr. Walker, for whom Ada Walker Mefford was named."

CONCERNING THE ANCESTRY OF THOMAS MILTON TINNEY

of 53 East 400 North Orem, Utah 84057

In the ancestry of my mother's family, Mrs. Hazel K. Green(e) Tinney, I note some very interesting historical events. My great-grandfather, William Alexander Thompson, b. 8 Feb 1840, in Warren Co., Ohio, married Susan Elizabeth Redinger; he was the son of Jesse Thompson and Joanna Birdcell. Jesse Thompson, b. 21 Mar. 1813 in Ohio, Warren Co., was the son of William Thompson and Elizabeth Blackford. William was born in Kentucky and Elizabeth was born in New Jersey. Jesse's wife, Joanna Birdcell, was the daughter of Warren Birdcell (Burdsell), b. 1 Mar. 1792 in Delaware, d. 10 Feb. 1824 in Arkansas. Warren's wife, Anna Compton, was b. 30 May 1794 in what is now Mason Co., Ky. Her father, Jacob R. Compton, left Hunterdon Co., New Jersey, about 1793 and traveled down through the Cumberland Gap and through parts of Tenn. (fam. tradition), finding themselves in Mason Co., Ky., in time for the birth of my 3rd gt-g-mother. Unfortunately, scarlet fever was exposed to the family and four of Jacob's children died in October of 1794. From pg. 70 of Comptonology, we find that there were "two hundred in this caravan from Hunterdon Co., N. J., and some of the families were: the Runyans, Hawkins, Zutphens, and etc. Jacob R. Compton was married to Orriminah Hyde (Hide), daughter of John Hide, of Hopewell, New Jersey. The Jersey John Hide Assn. was later formed in Cincinnati, Ohio, to recover Orriminah's father's Estate. It was formed by those descending from Jacob R. Compton and Orriminah Hide his wife; Benijah Stout and Elizabeth Hide; Eunice (Hide) Vanzandt; also, Charity (Hide) Centney. On pg. 261 of the History of Hamilton Co., Ohio, we find A. L. (Alexander L.) Compton, of Mt. Pleasant, as Sec. of this Assn. and the Estate believed to be worth sixty or seventy millions of dollars. A. L. Compton also had extensive tracts in Tennessee(land).

In quickly tracing the lineage back of John Hide of New Jersey, we find in the records of Col. Calvin I. Kephart, Shady Side, Maryland (Past Pres., Nat'l Gen. Soc., Wash. D. C.), that he married Ann Elizabeth Runyan, daughter of John Runyan and Ann Elizabeth Dunn. John Runyan was b. 1669, and, the son of the original Vincent Runyan, who, it seems, is the "father" of all the Runyan Family in America. Ann Elizabeth Dunn was the daughter of Hugh Dunn and Elizabeth Drake; Elizabeth the daughter of Francis Drake. It is notable how many prominent families of New Jersey trace back into these original family heads. Peter Runyan, a brother to John Runyan who m. Ann Elizabeth Dunn, was also the father of a great posterity. For example, his daughter Grace, b. 17 Jan. 1706/7, m. Daniel Cooper 17 Apr. 1726. From them came Daniel C. Cooper, noted founder of Dayton, Ohio; Agnes Ludlow, who m. Silas Hurinfounder of Lebanon, Ohio; John Ludlow, part owner of what is now Cincinnati, Ohio. His half-brother, Israel, was a great surveyor, for which Ludlow, Ky., was named and whose daughter Sara Bella married Jephtha D. Garrard, a lawyer in Cincinnati, and son of Governor Garrard, of Kentucky. However, Israel was not of the blood line of the Runyan Family.

In Passaic Valley Genealogy, an excellent book for those of Ky. who may have early New Jersey connections, there is much mention of those "gone to Ky.", and etc. There are also numerous statements in the genealogical accounts given in the book, Early Germans of New Jersey, though the book is not completely accurate.

My interest is to trace down all DUNN, DRAKE, RUNYAN, HYDE (HIDE) and

GEORGE CONRAD MEFFERT

There has been much confusion as to the parents of George Conrad Meffert. I, too, have a theory as to the parentage of him. It seems most logical to me that he was the son of JOHANN GEORGE MEFFERT-born: 9 June, 1691 in Wachenbuchen-Hesse-Germany. Died: 9 February, 1717. Johann George's Parents were JOHN CONRAD and ANNA MARIA (GLINDER) MEFFERT.

Anna Maria Glinder's father was Abraham Glinder. I have no record of a marriage for Johann Georg Meffert but at his age, I assume he was married, thus giving us: 1-GEORGE (his father) CONRAD (his paternal grandfather). George was just TOO YOUNG to be the son of John Conrad Meffert since he seems to have had his first child born on the trip from Germany in 1751. Another point in favo of this theory is the fact that the sons of John Conrad Meffert are ALL KNOWN and NOWHERE IS THE A GEORGE CONRAD MEFFERT LISTED!

It is also highly possible that ABRAHAM MEFFERT (named for his maternal grandfather Abraham Glinder) was a brother to George Conrad Meffert. Abraham immigrated to this country on 26 september, 1764 and nothing is known of his whereabouts to this date, so perhaps he died soon after his arrival in this country.

INFORMATION OF THE GERMAN BORN MEFFERTS WAS TAKEN FROM "MEFFERDS/MEFFERTS THEIR KITH AND KIN" as researched by MARGARETE ROBINSON. Records are in OLD PARISH RECORDS IN HESSE COUNTY, GERMANY.

From this point forward, I will try to stick with the facts and not speculate too much.

1 GEORGE CONRAD MEFFERT immigrated 16 September, 1751 on board the ship TWO BROTHERS, from Rotter dam with 200 passengers. Captain William Muir. (PENNSYLVANIA GERMAN PIONEERS-Strassburger-List 169C-page 464)
The next record of George Conradt Mefferte (1751-52) is found in the WARRICK CONGREGATION (now Emmanuel Lutheran Church) in Brickersville, Elizabeth (originally Warrick) Twp., Pennsylvania. In the records of LANCASTER TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH (Lancaster Co., Pennsylvania) we find that his wife is named MAGDALENE and his second and third children were born:
JOHN JACOB MAYFARTH, 3 July, 1753 and MARIA ELIZABETH MAYFARTH, 3 June, 1760. No sponsors.

According to his grandson, JOHN MEFFORD (son of George Conrad Mefford, Jr.) near Maysville, Kentucky, the family first settled in ANTIETUM, MARYLAND (now Washington Co.) and then to RED-STONE (now Fayette and Washington Counties) in Pennsylvania.
DRAPER'S NOTES-Series/S, Vol. 19, Trip 3-1863, page 128. Housed at the Wisconsin Historical Soc

Now as one can readily see they did not go directly to Antietium Country in Maryland but went there sometime after 1760. There son, JOHN MEFFERD (Brown Co., Ohio) was probably born in Maryland, 18 April, 1764. Much of the early church records have been lost in Maryland.

The next record of George Mifford, Sr. was found in the Pennsylvania Archives Series 3, Tax Lis for WASHINGTON CO.-FALLOWFIELD TWP.-1781 along with his son John. John was also listed in 1782 and 1783. George, Sr. was not listed again until 1784, where he appears with his sons: George Mifferd, Jr. and John Mifford. Around 1787 George Mefford, Jr. moved to the Limestone (Maysvill Country in Kentucky, as will be shown later.

George Mefford, Sr. died in Washington County, Pennsylvania as an abstract of his will, dated 1788, shows that his wife was probably deceased, as she was not named. His heirs were: George Conrad, Jr. (the oldest), Jacob, Elizabeth and John. JOHN MEFFORD, ADMINISTRATOR.

John Mefford is still found in the 1790 Federal Census and also in the 1793 State Census of Washington Co.-Fallowfield Twp.), Pennsylvania. George Mefford, Jr. had already made the trip down the Ohio River with his family to the Limestone Area in Kentucky.

THE CHILDREN AND DECENDANTS OF GEORGE CONRAD AND MAGDALENA (?) MEFFORD, SR:

1-A GEORGE CONRAD MEFFORD, JR. was born 1751 on the voyage from Germany (DRAPER'S NOTES). Malinda Masters became his wife 27 July, 1779 in Pennsylvania, exactly were is not known. George must have made a preliminary trip to Kentucky prior to the removal of his family a a Deposition by John Riggs of Mason Co., Kentucky clearly shows:
"In May, 1783, Jacob Drennon, John Riggs, Thomas Mills, Lot Masters and GEORGE MEFFORD cam down the Ohio River to the district of Kentucky to locate and improve lands. Leaving thei canoe at or near the mouth of CROOKED CREEK, they proceeded to the waters of the NORTH FO OF THE LICKING RIVER. There they carved George Mefford's name on a honey locust. This is near Maysville, Kentucky which was then BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY.
(COLLIN'S HISTORY OF KENTUCKY Vol. 12)

Two LAND GRANT RECORDS ARE FOUND AT THE KENTUCKY HISTORICAL SOCIETY FOR THIS AREA:

1-Grant Date: 14 Dec. 1799 Bk. 12 pg. 168-69 GEORGE MOFFETT 500 acres.
Survey Date: 15 Apr. 1795 Bk. 6 pg. 96-97 Watercourse: North Fork of the Licking Ri

2-Grant Date: 15 Oct. 1805 Bk. 2 pg. 512 GEORGE MEFFORD 60 acres.
Survey Date: UNKNOWN Watercourse: Limestone Cr.-S. of Green Ri

In the year 1787 George, his wife and two children made the long trek down the Ohio River and built what was known as MEFFORD'S STATION about 2½ miles south of Maysville (now Maso Do.) Kentucky. In 1875 the property was owned by Joseph J. Mefford near Blanchard farm. COLLIN'S HISTORY OF KENTUCKY.
On the front cover of Vol. 2 July, 1966 of the KENTUCKY ANCESTORS there appears a picture of this Station. The Historical Society has restored it for it's historical value. The Station is purported to have been built from the flatboat that George and his family trave ed from Pennsylvania in.

George Conrad Mefford, Jr. died 18 October, 1814 in Mason Co., Kentucky. His decendants ar eligible for the DAR MEMBERSHIP due to his service in the MC INTOSH COMPAIGN in Pennsylvan as a hunter. He was a mere lad of sixteen or seventeen. Those days in Western Pennsylvania were lived with the constant threat of death due to both Indians and natural hazards. A young man grew up very fast and with a rifle in his hand.
After George's death in 1814, his widow married Ennis Duncan of Maysville, Kentucky.

1-A1 ANDREW MEFFORD, born 8 January, 1781, Washington Co., Pennsylvania. Married Susannah Burns 31 August, 1802 in Mason Co., Kentucky. After they were married they resided in Greenup Co

Kentucky for a period of time. (Deed Bk. T, pg. 106, 22 August, 1818-Mason Co., Ky.) Then he and his family moved to Pike Co. (Peno Twp.), Missouri near the Salt River. At present, I do not have the children of Andrew. Andrew died between 1840 and 1847 in the above mentioned county and state.

1-A2 ANN MEFFORD, born 6 February, 1783, Washington Co., Pennsylvania. Married Thomas Truman Garfield Waring and resided Greenup Co., Ky. (Deed Bk. 60, pg. 130 dated, 27 February,,1850)

His wife listed as Rebecca, age 60 and born in Ohio. They have one child AMANDA, age 17, born in Kentucky still at home. DR Bk 1: 4/5 Rebecca Mefford d. Jan 1868 at 82, widow, paralysis, Ripley, OH b. Union Twp BrCo., OH

John Mefford died 7 April, 1872 in Mason County, Kentucky.

1-A5 NATHAN MEFFORD, born 17 February, 1790. As far as I know it has never been established whether Nathan ever married or not. He is found living in Maysville in 1874 (COLLIN'S HISTORY OF KENTUCKY Vol. 2 pg. 556) Mr. Collins gives his thanks to Nathan Mefford for supplying the information pertaining to his father George Mefford.

1-A6 MARY MEFFORD was born 5 June, 1792, Mason Co., Kentucky. Married Thomas Evans, 17 April, 1806. On 17 April, 1817 they were living in Adams Co., Ohio (Deed Bk. R pg. 455 Mason Co.,KY

1-A11 THOMAS MEFFORD, born 25 February, 1803, Mason Co., Ky. Married Ellen (Eleanor) Hodkins. 28 July, 1825, Brown Co., Ohio. Thomas and Eleanor first settled on a farm in Union Twp. but three years later they moved to Russellville (~~Pleasant~~ Jefferson Twp.) where they purchased a 40 acre farm and Town Lot #12, on which they built a log cabin, the second one built in Russellville. They lived in it until 1840, when they built a two story brick. In 1844,

Thomas donated land for a church to be built. (Russellville Church of Christ). Thomas held various township offices and was Postmaster of Russellville from 25 August, 1845 until 5 June, 1861. He did Blacksmithing and built an occasional rifle. In his later life, he was an invalid but due to his early life interest in horses he managed to keep alert by doing a written work on the horse and it's diseases. Thomas was the first to introduce the Morgan horse stock in the Russelville area. (Brown County History-1883)
Thomas died 11 March, 1890, Ellen died 3 May, 1890. She left a will which is found in Bromm Co., Ohio Wills-Vol. 9 pg. 540. leaving all she had to her ADDPTED DAUGHTER "ELVINA A. BAIRD.". Brown County Wills Vol. 7 pg. 98, Probated 5 October, 1880. On Joshua's tombstone the dated is 22 November, 1880. HANNAH his third wife are buried in ODD RUSSELLVILLE CEMETARY.

1-A13 CALEB MEFFORD, born 16 February, 1808, Mason Co., Kentucky. He was residing in Mason Co., Ky. in 1829 (Deed Bk. 33 pg. 364). In the 1830 Federal Census Pike Co. (Peno Twp.) Missouri, a Caleb Mefore is found along with Andrew Mefford, of the same county. Since his brother, Andrew Mefford is known to have moved to Missouri, perhaps this is Caleb Mefford. More research is required.

1-B JOHN JACOB MEFFORD/MAYFARTH, born 3 July, 1753. Baptisted 7 July, 1753 in the LANCASTER TRINITY CHURCH, Lancaster, Pennsylvania. Most researchers believe this is the Jacob W. MEFFORD who died June, 1798 (Botetourt County, Virginia). In the West Virginia Archives there is a record of Jacob Mefford's Frontier Service during the Revolution. Jacob was probably married ca. 1780/83 to Peggy (Mary/Margaret) ?. I believe after the death of Jacob she went to Richmond City (Henrico County-two counties over from Botetourt Co.), Virginia. There we find MRS. MARY METTERT married William P. Thompson, 7 March, 1812. The name is spelled METTERT but that is not unusual.

Their children are named in Jacob's will.

1-B1 ELIZABETH MEFFORD, born ca. 1782/83. Married John Nugent, 16 May, 1797, Botetourt County, Virginia. She was married at the time of her father's death and is named as Elizabeth Nugent in the will.

1-B2 JOHN (?HENRY) MEFFORD, born ca. 1784/85. Married ? Mildred Kreese, 28 January, 1804, Richmond City (Henrico Co.) Virginia. The name in the index is also spelled METTERT. Some people believe that the John Mefford that was killed in Pendleton County, Virginia/West Virginia in 1799 by a falling tree is this John. Somehow, I think that that is incorrect and John of the falling tree is connected to Robert Moffert, Monoglia Co., Virginia. I do not have any proof, only a hunch.

1-B3 PEGGY (?MARY/MARGARET) MEFFORD, born ca. 1786/87. Married ?, 1 February, 1804 at Richmond City (Henrico Co.) Virginia. Her father is listed as Jacob Mettert.

1-B4 POLLY MEFFORD, born ca. 1788/89.

1-B5 PRICILLA MEFFORD, born CA. 1790/91.

1-B6 JACOB MEFFORD, born ca. 1792/93. Some researchers believe that this Jacob and the one in the 1850 Federal Census- Jefferson County, Tennessee is the one and the same. He is in the same age bracket but if you study his children carefully, you will note that he has five remaining at home, the eldest born 1828. I would agree that they are the one and the same except that there is LILBERN MEFFORD born 1816, Tennessee. I am more inclined to think that Jacob and Lilbern Are brothers and are not father/son because of the vast difference in the age of Lilbern [illegible] the oldest child of Jacob's at home. JEFFERSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE IS RIGHT BELOW SO [illegible] COUNTY, VIRGINIA WHERE GEORGE MEFFORD, THE SON OF CASPER MEFFORD OF ROCKINGHAM COUNTY, VIRGINIA IS KNOWN TO BE FROM 1816 until at least after the 1830 Federal Census. Casper Mefford is of an entirely different line than George Conrad Mefford.

1-B7 CATHERINE MEFFORD, born ca. 1794/95

1-C MARIA ELIZABETH MEFFORD/MAYFARTH, born 3 June, 1760. Baptisted 29 June, 1760 in the LANCASTER TRINITY CHURCH, Lancaster, Pennsylvania. Nothing is known of her.

1-D JOHN MEFFORD, born 17 April, 1764, probably in Maryland. No record has been found to date. According to the Pennsylvania Archives Series 6 Vol. 2 pgs. 183 and 203, he served in the frontier service of the Washington County, Pennsylvania Militia in the 5th Batt'n, Capt. James Hopkins Co., Rank: 7th class. may, 1782 and 1 May, 1783. John married Elizabeth ? in Pennsylvania. John is found in the 1790 Federal Census and in the 1793 State Census of Fallowfield Twp., Pennsylvania.

After 1793 and Before 26 August, 1795, John, his wife and son, George had made the trip down the Ohio River to Mason Co., Kentucky. On this date, he was issued an ORDINARY LISCENSE (tavern, food, and lodging in one's home). His second son, Henry was born in 1796 in Mason Co., Kentucky. His stay there was brief. I next find him as a candidate for Lieutant in the Hamilton County (now Brown County), Ohio Militia, dated 10 January, 1799. This petition was signed by the inhabitants between the waters of EAGLE and STRAIGHT CREEKS and thereabouts (near Levanna, Ohio). (COPY OF THE PETITION IN BROWN COUNTY HISTORY-PUBLISHED 1883-pg. 252).

If family tradition is true John and his family spent their first nights living in the roots of a large hollow Sycamore tree until a cabin could be built near ROUP'S RUN. John purchased 500 acres of land. John died 2 April, 1834, Brown Co., Ohio. His will is found in Brown Co. Ohio Wills Vol. 1 pg. 244. Elizabeth, his wife, died 11 August, 1846. They are both buried in the OLD RED OAK CEMETARY, ~~Levanna~~ Red Oak, Ohio.

1-D1 GEORGE MEFFORD, born 22 November, 1786, Washington Co., Pennsylvania. MARRIED 1st Polly Ellis, 7 November, 1811, Probate Ct. Vol. 1 pg. 22 Clermont Co., Ohio. (Brown Co. was created from Clermont). Polly was the daughter of Sammuel and Mary Ellis. She was born 20 October, 1793 in Brown Co., Ohio.
George engaged in transporting produce and provisions to New Orleans and made a total of eighteen trips. He was a member of the Board of Township Trustees for years. George was active in the Baptist Church. Polly died 16 May, 1832. After her death he married Matilda Evans, a widow on 5 March, 1833, Brown Co., Ohio. 1850 Federal Census, Brown Co., Ohio. family # 67. They had one son born in 1834, ROBERT ~~MICHAL~~ MEFFORD. — no he is Robt Mitchell

RIDGE CEMETARY.
John grew up on the family farm which in 1883 had 131 acres. He farmed the land from 1842. John served as Deacon of Olive Chapel (Christian or New Light) Congregation from 1848. Elders T. W. Graybill and John with a membership of 9 organized this church which is about 3 miles south of Georgetown. It was through the marriage of John and Anna that the ANNUAL MEFFORD-PANGBURN REUNION was born. It is now known as the ANNUAL PISQAH RIDGE CHURCH HOMECOMING and is still held the second Sunday of each September. (History of Pisqah Ridge Church--1977)

The following sheet of paper that confirms the birth date and the christening date, the name of the father and the mother of George Mefford of Maysville, Kentucky, should settle the clouded information in the histories of Kentucky and Ohio.

Johannes Gorg Conradt Meffert arrived at Philadelphia, Pa. 16 Sept. 1751, on the ship THE BROTHERS, signed the Oath of Allegiance 16 Sept. 1751 in Philadelphia, Pa. This is documented in the book "Pennsylvania Pioneers", by Ralph Beaver Strassburger, page 464.

The son, John George Meffors was born 25 Sept. 1751, nine days after his father and mother arrived in America. This is documented in the church records of Christ Lutheran Church, York, Pennsylvania; these records held at the Adams County Historical Society, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania.

Burger & Ash have swung to the breeze a new sign, on which reads, in white letters on a blood-red background, "Excelsior Shaving Saloon." If you want a nice shave call at the Excelsior.

Mr. Wm. J. Mingua, who formerly carried on the dry goods business in this place, and who has been doing business in Augusta, Ky., for several years, has made an assignment.

The question naturally arises, will the present town council give us any more light of dark nights than did the last one? Is there no light in that body?

Mr. Jesse Parker and Mr. Wm. Flynn have formed a partnership in the painting business. Carriage painting, ornamental painting, house and sign lettering is the class of work done by this new firm.

The Georgetown Cornet Band gave an open air concert in the Court-house yard last Saturday evening. Their music on that occasion, was, as it always has been, first-class and highly appreciated by our citizens. Come again.

At twenty you know everything; at thirty you have your doubts; at forty there are some things you don't know; at fifty you are only sure of your ignorance, and after that you read Beecher's sermons on everlasting punishment and hope he is right.

In Franklin township, this county, Mr. Shaub was defeated for Constable because he didn't take up all the stock running at large, and in this township Mr. Whitaker was defeated because he did. You'll be d——d if you do and be d——d if you don't.

The pamphlet programme for the coming fair will be out in the course of two weeks. They will be printed at the NEWS office, and, as we have ordered new type for that express purpose, we insure the Board a good job, as we can everybody favoring us with a call.

Misses Lizzie and Nettie Kerans keep the nicest stock of confectionaries in town. Call and get your candies, nuts and oranges, of these ladies. They know how to cater to your palate, and are worthy of a liberal patronage. Their room is with Mr. Geo. Kerans, next door to the postoffice.

Mr. Henry Widder now runs a stage hack line from Georgetown by Arnheim and Brownstown, to Sardinia, twice a week, on Tuesdays and Fridays. Leave Georgetown at 7 a. m., and returning leave Sardinia at 1 p. m. All packages of goods or money carried safely and promptly, as well as passengers.

A Democratic Congress appropriated $20,000,000 to pay Union pensioners. The Rebel soldiers help foot the bill and don't grumble and that is what worries the Republicans. For political sake they would like to see a move put on foot to pension disabled southern soldiers. They will be disappointed.

Last week three gentlemen purchased what is known as the Sulphur Spring tract of land, belonging to the estate of Mr. D. G. Devore, situated in the incorporated limits of Georgetown. They are, J. R. Moore, P. J. Miller and T. J. Leeds.

The mysterious givings out of these gentlemen fairly indicate that they design something marvelous to be done soon on these premises. And the on-dit has it that they will erect a magnificent hotel at the springs, as a watering-place for pleasure-seeking people, invalids, &c. The hotel will be on a magnificent scale—the Grand at Cincinnati being the model. Upon the premises will be constructed nice marble walks, shell-road drives, a zoological garden, bath houses, fish pools, parks, beer garden, museum, auditorium for concerts, race track, &c, &c. These and many other attractions will be attached to the Georgetown Sulphur Springs Hotel. The hotel is to contain all the modern improvements, with gas fixtures, elevators, an observator, from which to view the stars as well as the romantic scenery along Gerundy creek and Bald Point. These are only a few of its attractions. Rooms may be engaged at once, as a vast crowd will always be seen after its completion.

Died

At his residence in Lewis township, this county, on the 11th inst., Mr. William Trout, aged 97 years.

Mr. Trout was born in Lincoln county, N. C., in 1781, and moved to Ohio in 1809, where he bought a farm on which he lived till his death, following the blacksmith business. Mr. Trout was never sued in his life, never sued a man, never testified as a witness in any court, never had an enemy, but was always respected and loved by all who knew him. In 1812 he was drafter in the war with England, served some time, then hired a substitute in his place. His father lived during the Revolutionary war in Virginia and was personally acquainted with General Washington. He leaves a widow, aged 95, and seven children, among whom are Daniel Trout, Esq., of Feesburg, Mrs. Swope, wife of Mr William Swope, of this town, and John and David Trout, of this county. Mr. Trout, though he never attached himself to any church, lived a strictly moral, upright, christian life, and died at peace with God and his fellow men. He lived to see Ohio developed from a comparative wilderness to the third State in the Union. By faithful industry during a long life at the blacksmith trade he earned and saved a competency of this world's goods. His days were spent in honest toil, frugality, virtue, peace and comfort, and his sunset was placid and full of hope for an eternity of bliss. Thus live and thus die the truly good men whose years are spent in fulfilment of the physical laws of Nature, and the moral laws of Nature's God.

The new Goods at G. N. Woodward & Co's are cheapest in town. Go and see them.

is a very large and important product in this country for commercial trade.

Nice Flour.

Mr. John Thompson makes A. No. 1 brand of flour. Call at the Armleder mill and get your flour, or at the grocery store of John Wills, in the Hervey McKibben building, Georgetown, who keeps it constantly on hands. Mr. Thompson is an old miller, and makes none but the best of flour. We have tried his flour and know it is first quality.

Brown County Pomona Grange.

The next regular meeting of Brown County Grange, will be held at the Hall of Eagle Grange in the Eastern part of the county, on Saturday, April 20, 1878. Let there be a good turnout, as a good time is expected.

FRANK DEVORE, Sec'y.

Notice is hereby given to the stockholders of the Ripley, Wilmington & Dayton Railroad Co., that there will be an election held at Mt. Oreb, Brown county, Ohio, on the 14th day of May, A. D. 1878, from 10 o'clock A. M. to 4 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of electing nine (9) Directors to serve the Company for one year.

Born in Ohio, James Daniel was a farmer by trade. The 1870 census from Huntington Twp. Brown Co., Ohio confirms this. In this census, James has personal property of $200.00, and Catherine is listed as being born in Kentucky. James and Catherine were members of the Enon Church in Sprigg Twp., Adams Co., Ohio.

In the "History of Brown Co., Ohio", published in 1883 by W. H. Beers and Co., page # 513, James is listed as serving in the Union Army during the Civil War. Although this reference does not list him under his regiment, the 175th Ohio Volunteer Infantry, further confirmation is made in the "Official Roster of Ohio Soldiers in the War of the Great Rebellion", page # 514. It is in this reference that it details his military record and about his capture on November 24, 1864, while in action at bridge # 16 of the Tennessee and Alabama Railroad. Further research is needed in finding proof of which prison camp he was sent to. There are listings of some of the captured that day as having died in various prisons. Listed is Cahaba Alabama, Meridian Mississippi, and Andersonville Georgia. It is in Andersonville Prison that family oral history says he went to. His wartime photo is believed to have been taken soon after his release. This photo was taken by a photographer from Jacksonville Florida, and has an army camp backdrop behind him. In the picture he has only the uniform clothes on, badly ripped and torn, and no weapons or belts. After the war, he returned to his family farm.

In 1872 he was one of the heirs of his father's estate. It is unknown if James worked outside his farm. Notes of Chester Paul Howard Sr. indicate that on Ohio State Route 125 in Adams Co., there is a Methodist Church near Cedar Mills. From information that Chester Sr. had received from Edra Lauderback, (Louderback), James cut the stone and laid the foundation of this church. It is unknown if this was a profession or a community service project.

James Daniel and Catherine Elisabeth are buried in the I.O.O.F. Cemetery, Lodge # 570 of West Union, Adams Co., Ohio, Lot 204. Upon their stone is the gates of heaven and the saying," Come ye blessed". Also inscribed is his regiment, "175th O.V.I." A Veteran's Civil War Star marks his grave. Buried beside them are Mary Alice (Howard) Huff, 1861-1943, and an unmarked grave. It is possible that William Serman Howard is buried in this grave. Family records state he is also buried at this cemetery.

We now have confirmation that James Daniel was taken to Andersonville Prison upon his capture. This was confirmed at a new Prisoner Lookup Site sponsored by Macon County, Georgia, Chamber Of Commerce & Development Authority. It list James as being

Your Petitioner Peter further represents that he has ~~further~~ purchased from four other heirs each of whom was entitled to one equal ninth part of said real estate their respective interests therein and has received written conveyances of their equitable title to the same which are herewith filed as part of this Petition as follows - from George H Bascom and Sarah Bascom late Sarah Scott an heir of said John decd said Sarah's interest as appears by conveyance dated 27th Oct 1840 marked "A"- Also the interest of Taylor Scott a son & heir of said John decd his interest as appears by conveyance dated August 1839 to George H Bascom and by said George assigned to your petitioner on the 27th Oct 1840 marked "B"-. They also state that said John Scott left a widow Jane Scott who is entitled to Dower in said lands. All of the above mentioned heirs and widow are residents of Brown County Ohio except G H Bascom and Sarah his wife who reside in Indiana- and the minors who reside in Clinton county- and your petitioners pray that they may all be made defendants hereto- and that in consideration of the premises your Honors will cause such proceedings to be had under the laws allowing partition of real estate as will set off to said widow her dower and set ~~apart~~ to your petitioner Peter Cooper five ninths of said tract of land to be held and enjoyed by him in severalty- and grant to your petitioners such other and relief as they may be entitled to. Three brothers landed in Philadelphia September 28, 1749. They came on the ship ANN via Rotterdam from the province of Hasse-Kassel in Saxony (known today as Germany). The province, since 1866, is called Hassee-Nausau. Through the years the brothers departed to different sections of northeast United States and formed the three branches of the FITE families.

Heinrich Vogt ---- Maryland branch
* Johannes Vogt ---- Tennessee branch
* Hans Jacob Vogt --- Lancaster, Pa branch

* Descendents of this branch are mostly in Ohio at present

THOMAS COTTRILL (or COTTERILL)*2

Virginia Service; Pension File No. W 4165.
He received Pension Certificate No. 22375 for $88.33 per annum, Act of 1832.
Widow, Nancy, received Pension Certificate No. 3154 [or 3159?] for $88.33 per annum, Act of July 6, 1836.

State of Ohio, Brown County Court of Common Pleas July Term 1833 -}-

On this 22nd day of July in the year of our Lord 1833 personally appeared in Open Court before the honorable the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas in and for the County of Brown and State of Ohio now sitting

THOMAS COTTERILL, a resident of the county and state aforesaid, aged 83 years, who, being first duly sworn according to law, doth, on his oath, make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832.*8

That in the month of August 1774 in what was called Dunmores Campaign, he entered the service of the country as a volunteer at Shanandoah __*1__ in the State of Virginia under Captain Bowman, Major Crawford and Colonel M'Daniel. He was engaged and served a tour of 4 months and 10 days and was encamped at Camp Charlotte at __*1__ and at Waugahpanghtomakox Fort. Was engaged the whole time against the Indians __?__ they had many skirmishes and a very serious battle at Waugahpanghtomakox, and at the end of that tour deponent was discharged and went home.

During the year 1775 in the months of June and July deponent states that he served a tour of 6 weeks as a spy against the indians between Pittsburgh and the __*1__ river where he had several sharp conflicts and was on this tour under the command of Capt. Rumages, no higher officer being present.

In the spring of 1777, deponent cannot state the month but knows it was in the spring season, he served one month as volunteer against the indians at Waugahpanghtomakox on the Ohio river. The officers were Captain Ellis, Lieutenant Harden, and Ensign Deckart. He was out on this tour a month fighting the indians at the bottom.

In the year 1778 deponent served 3 months against the indians as a volunteer as follows to wit he served during the month of August under Captain Davidson at Mingo bottom one month namely October under Captain Norris at the mouth of Big Beaver and the month of November at yellow creek and Redstone under Captain Ratan during this service he had warm times with the indians but no decided battles.

In 1779 served as a volunteer against the indians on the little Sciota river there were 400 men under the command of Colonels Hall and Orr deponent was out this tour 6 weeks and was an orderly sargeant in his company Captains Griffith, Byrd, and Miller were along they had hard times on this tour deponent was 3 days without a mouthful to eat it was in the months of June and July at the end of said tour he went home.

In the year 1780 and month of July he was stationed as guard near Pittsburgh under the command of Captain Johnson and served one month. In the year 1781 deponent was out the whole of the year under Captain Johnson, Colonel Crawford and General M'Intosh he was attached to a body called "indian spys and frontier rangers*24" and held office and performed the duties of orderly Sargent in his company during the whole year; he was marched to Guyun, to Big Beaver, to indian creek, to wheeling, and thence into the interior he was engaged in skirmishes with the indians on Fishing creek, the country at that time was new and whites but thoroley settled deponent cannot remember the names of all the creeks, rivers, Bottoms and indian towns where he was marched during this year though most of the year was spent in guarding the country lying between Pittsburgh and Wheeling and on the head waters of the Ohio river and many of the places where was marched had no names. At the end of the year deponent was discharged at Pittsburgh by Gen. Hand under whose command deponent served part of the year. Deponent never received a commission or a written discharge. He has no record of his age but states that he was born in Shenandoah County, Virginia, July 16th 1750. He has lived in Brown County, Ohio, about 5 years, that previous thereto he lived in Nicholas County, Kentucky 38 years.

He knew Capts. Bowman, Rumages, Ellis, Davidson; Cols. Crawford, Orr, and Hall, Major M'Daniel; Gen's M'Intosh, Hand, and "Old Mad Anthony" as he calls Gen. Wayne.

He knows of no living witness by whom he can prove his service but is well known to John Fight, Isaac Ambrose and Jacob Fight and other residents of his present neighborhood who have known him both in Kentucky and in this state by whom he can prove his good character for truth and veracity and his reputation as a soldier of the revolution. There is no clergyman in his neighborhood to testify for him*35.

He never received a pension and hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid. G.W. King, Clerk. THOS. COTTRILL *36

[John Fite and Isaac Ambrose vouched for Thomas Cottrill's age, honesty, and reputation as a Revolutionary veteran.]

And the said Court do hereby declare their opinion, after the investigation of the matter and after putting the interrogatories*68 prescribed by the War Department, that Thomas Cottrill was a revolutionary soldier and served as he states.

APPLICATION made in order to obtain a pension under the Law of July 6, 1836.

Personally appeared in Open Court before the Court of Common Pleas of Brown County in the State of Ohio now in session, NANCY COTTERILL, who being duly sworn according to law on her oath states that she was born on the 6th day of January but the year of her birth she cannot give further than that. She now verily believes she is 81 or 82 years of age [born, therefore, 6 January 1754 or 1755]. In somerset County in the Eastern part of the State of New Jersey and she further believes that she was married to THOMAS COTTERILL on the 14th day of May in the year of our Lord 1775 in the Redstone Settlement in the State of Pennsylvania by Parson Hogg. She cannot state the denomination to which he belonged. She had 12 children by the said Thomas Cotterall, her oldest child of said marriage was Elizabeth Harvey (now deceased) and she was born about 18 months after said marriage and if now living would be about 62 years of age. Her youngest child of said marriage is Millie Fight, wife of John W. Fight of Brown County, Ohio, and she is now about 42 years of age.

She verily believes that her said husband was a soldier of the Revolution and he obtained a Pension for his services in the war of the Revolution. She herewith forwards his pension certificate and refers to his declaration and proofs on file (as she supposes) in the proper office at Washington City for proof of his service in the Army of the Revolution and for the particulars of said service.

She lived with the said Thomas Cotterill as his wife until his death which took place in Brown County in the State of Ohio on the 27th day of March 1836. She remained the widow of the said Thomas Cotterill ever since his death and yet is his widow.

She lived in Redstone Settlement as nearly as she can now remember about 11 or 12 years and then she moved with her said husband to Bourbon County in the State of Kentucky where she lived some years and she moved to Nicholas County in the same state and lived there some years and the number of which in either of said counties she cannot remember and then about 12 or 13 years ago she and her said husband moved to Brown County in the State of Ohio, in which she has continued to reside and now resides.

After said marriage her husband served in the war of the Revolution and he served in said war, she believes, 7 years after said marriage but she cannot from memory state the time of his service with precision after said marriage and asks leave again to refer to the declaration and proofs of her said husband for proof of this ______. Her said husband served as she believes, under Captain Bowman. She cannot now state the names of his officers.

She has no record of her age. There was a record of it in her family Bible that has been torn [? or worn or burn] up. She has no other record of the date of her marriage than that contained in her family bible now produced in Court -- which she has been informed and believes, was copied into it from said old family bible destroyed as aforesaid -- and that it was so copied therein by her said husband.

She hereby relinquishes all claim whatever to a pension except the present and declares that her name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state.

Sworn to & subscribed in Open Court
October 5, 1839. J.W. King, Clerk
The Court certified the above facts.

The Mark of
NANCY (X) COTTERILL *3

[John Fite filed an affidavit on the 4th of October, 1839, in Brown County, re-stating and testifying to many of the same facts included in Nancy Cotterill's declaration, and adding, in part: that he will be 70 years of age on the 8th day of this month [born, therefore 8 October 1769]; that he became acquainted with Thomas and Nancy Cotterill about 53 years ago in Bourbon County, Kentucky, where they lived and had living with them three children that he knew at the time; he lived a near neighbor to them in Bourbon County about 10 or 15 years and knew them to be married and living together as man and wife. That George Summitt [? spelling] lived in the same Bourbon County neighborhood and he, John Fite, had heard George Summitt say that he came from the same neighbourhood in Pennsylvania and knew the Cotterills to be lawfully married. That he, John Fite, now lives about a mile from the widow, Nancy Cotterill, and knows her to be a widow of truthful reputation. That Thomas Cotterill died in March, 1836 in Brown County. That Elizabeth Cotterill who afterwards married Hiram Harvey, was 9 or 10 years of age when he first became acquainted with the family in Kentucky.]

[John Fite filed another affidavit October 5th, 1839, again re-stating much of the above information, and testifying that he knew the handwriting of Thomas Cotterill and that the writing of the marriage of Thomas Cotterill and Nancy Gerance as recorded in the family bible was Thomas Cotterill's handwriting. Also that he saw the page torn from the bible and saw the identical writing and figures on the leaf thereof. That Thomas Cotterill lived several months in the fall and winter of 1833 in Fite's home and brought the Bible to their house. (There is a great amount of detail about the family bible and its authenticity.) Also stated that Thomas Cotterill before his death was greatly afflicted with rheumatism and had been injured by a fall from his horse. That he married the youngest daughter of Thomas and Nancy Cotterill and that she was 42 years old last March. That he was acquainted with 7 children of Thomas and Nancy Cotterill and that they had 12 children. He repeats many of the details several times.]

[Thomas Cottrill was a Brown County veteran. His pension file is included here because it was one of the very few which contained good details of Dunmore's War, and also because it contained some excellent genealogical and migratory information.]

Three numbers grouped together, 16 32 / 33 representing Child Father, / Mother enables one to trace ancestors or descendents from one generation to the next, without the aid of connecting lines, thereby allowing many more generations to be recorded in a given space. EXAMPLE: The child, represented by 16 above, will be recorded on line 16, in the group 8 16 here, / 17. The parents of 32, above, will be recorded on lines 64 and 65, in group 32 64 here. / 65 here. The male is always the even and the female the odd number except No. 1, which may be either male or female.

Jacob Fite, the founder of the numerous families of that name came to OHIO and settled in the western quarter of the township somewhere in the first decade after 1800. He chose a tract of land in the survey of D. Lambert no. 2421. William and Charles, the two surviving descendents of Jacob Fite have not wandered from the home of their father's adoption. All who know them respect their industry, honesty and temperate habits.
